JIM HOGG COUNTY ISD celebrates School Board Recognition Month this January

Hebbronville, Texas– January is School Board Recognition Month and Jim Hogg County ISD is honored to celebrate its trustees for their dedication and commitment to the district’s schools and students.

“Our school board members are selfless volunteers who spend long hours working to ensure all of our students have the opportunity to learn and grow,” Dr. Susana P. Garza said. “Celebrating School Board Recognition Month is one way to say thanks for all they do.”

Serving as a link between the community and classroom, school board members are elected to establish the policies that provide the framework for public schools. The Jim Hogg County ISD board is responsible for an annual budget of $12.5 million, 1079 students, 178 employees and 3 campuses.

“School boards are essential to a strong public education system,” Texas Association of School Boards (TASB) Executive Director Dan Troxell said. “They provide the local governance and oversight that makes it possible for school districts to serve students, including establishing a strategic plan, adopting policies, approving a budget and selecting and evaluating a superintendent. It’s fitting that we celebrate them in January as their leadership is key to the success of every school district in Texas.”

Board members serving Jim Hogg County ISD are: Pedro P. Lopez, Jr., Elias Morales, Belinda Molina, Billy Cremer, Etna Ramirez, Ramiro J. Molina, Ademar Garza.

“It is more important than ever before that communities support public education so that today’s students are prepared to be productive citizens and the leaders of tomorrow. Please take a moment and tell school board members ‘Thank you for caring about our children and giving so much to our community.’ Let them know we support them and that their dedicated service is recognized and truly appreciated,” said Dr. Susana P. Garza.
